

Ruberoid... on Floors

Ruberoid roofing makes a splendid floor covering for an office or workroom.

It is almost impossible to wear it out. It lays as smooth as linoleum and costs only one-fourth as much.

As a roofing, it has no equal. It is absolutely waterproof, acid-proof and fire-resisting.

It will last longer than tin, iron or shingles, and costs far less.

No skill required to lay it.

HIS ONLY LOVE.

Hicks—Your friend Cadley claims a fortune teller told him he was sure to be successful in love.

Wicks—That's a good guess; at any rate, the one he loves most is always glad to listen to him.

Hicks—Indeed? Who is it?

Wicks—Cadley.

SUN STARTS FIRE.

It has been discovered that many of New South Wales and Victoria, Australia's recent great bush fires in New Zealand, were caused by the phosphorus paste laid down to kill rabbits. As soon as the mixture dries it catches fire under the heat of the sun's rays.

At last, at last—tomorrow the Oahu go up against the Champions and then there will be something doing. Diamond cut diamond and how the fans will enjoy it! For nine innings—possibly more—the two teams that are conceded to be the best in the league will fight it out on the line of splendid ball tossing. There are no "ifs" to consider it can be nothing but a good game, and one of the best of the season. Coming on a holiday too—there should be a record-breaking crowd at the game.

BOTH FIGHTERS IN FINE SHAPE

FIGHT AT THE ORPHEUM SATURDAY EVENING PROMISES MUCH IN THE WAY OF SPORT.

Fight fans are turning out in force to watch the big boys who are to meet on next Saturday evening at the Orpheum, go through their work. Every one is predicting a good fight and if Sullivan's condition has anything to do with it the fight will surely be a success from the standpoint of the fans.

Sullivan is working hard. Over the Brunswick Billiard Parlor he has had fitted up some great little training quarters and there you will find the fight fans every afternoon to see Dick go through his work. Dick is a hard worker and therein lays his great success. Yesterday afternoon he first punched the bag for four strenuous rounds then after a go with the weights he took Joe Vierra, the ice peddler, on for a couple of rounds. Vierra was very willing even if he was woefully undersized compared with Dick. As Sam took a chance with the boy and mixed it for a few moments. As Sam is on for a little go with Kid Barry next Saturday night.

Between the rounds Sullivan kept on the go and after two more rounds with Nigel Jackson he skipped the rope for ten minutes. He finished in fine condition. He seems confident of Saturday's fight but will not discuss it to any extent.

On the other hand Silva is working hard. Huihui is training him down in Kakaako over a saloon called the Wigwam. Silva is working hard and expects to win.

The fight will be worth anyone's money. The prelims are right and the big fight holds forth much to the lovers of the sport. The go between Sailor Morch and Huihui should be worth the price alone.

FANS WILL SEE GREAT BALL TOMORROW

EVERYTHING PROMISES A DAY OF RARE SPORT TOMORROW AT THE GAME OF BASE BALL.

At last, at last—tomorrow the Oahu go up against the Champions and then there will be something doing. Diamond cut diamond and how the fans will enjoy it! For nine innings—possibly more—the two teams that are conceded to be the best in the league will fight it out on the line of splendid ball tossing. There are no "ifs" to consider it can be nothing but a good game, and one of the best of the season. Coming on a holiday too—there should be a record-breaking crowd at the game.

And say—the second game between Kams and the Puns won't be so worse. Puns think that they would like to take a jump in the position of the standing of the teams and so they will go into the game tomorrow to win. They will have blood in their eye and when the Puns make up their mind to do anything something happens. Kams also are looking for trouble and they have a disgraceful defeat to wipe out, and now come to the game tomorrow and watch them do it. Oh, it will be a royal struggle and may the best team win!
